

Special Track Session 9

Radiation Protection Committee

Round Table

Tuesday, September 12, 08:00 – 09:30

Session Title

Establishing and Running a Theranostics Center in a Clinical Setting

Moderators

Michael Lassmann (Würzburg, Germany)

Sigrid Leide Svegborn (Malmö, Sweden)

Round Table Participants

Ken Herrmann (Essen, Germany) - Why theranostics and future challenges, the clinical perspective

Anna Sundlöv (Uppsala, Sweden) - Staff, infrastructure and instrumentation, and related regulatory issues

Nicolas Cherbuin (Lausanne, Switzerland) - Patient management and radiation protection considerations of staff, patients, carers, and the public

Sandra Heskamp (Nijmegen, The Netherlands) - New theranostic agents and future challenges

Educational Objectives

1. Learn important issues how to establish and run a theranostic center
2. Learn about regulatory aspects
3. Learn about radiation protection issues of staff, patients and carers
4. Learn about new theranostic agents

Summary

(mandatory)

In this round table discussion you will get an overview of all important aspects to be considered establishing and running a theranostics center in a clinical setting from different point of views. After the short keynote lectures, which are the basis for the discussion everybody from the audience can give their input and experience so there will be a lively and interesting discussion on this important topic.

Key Words

Theranostics, Radiation Protection, Regulations